Please address the following questions in the space provided on the next page. Each individual student and each teacher must submit a personal application to be accepted. Class or group applications will not be considered. Please complete Section A if you have previous experience with historic preservation, cultural landscapes, or paleontology. Don't worry. If you have a personal interest in cultural landscapes, paleontology or historic preservation, but have not yet had a chance to experience it in your own community, please complete Section B.

Section A:

1. Please describe historic preservation efforts in your community and school. How has your school or organization shown a commitment to historic preservation in the last year?
2. How have the teachers in your school, as well as the students worked to advance the appreciation of Colorado history?

Section B:

1. Please describe your personal interest in cultural landscapes, paleontology, or historic preservation.
2. Please describe how you might use the knowledge gained through attendance at the 2010 Youth Summit to advance appreciation of Colorado history.

Full scholarships are available for sixty (60) students and ten (10) teachers for the Learning Landscapes program centered at the Great Sand Dunes National Park, and for twenty-five (25) students and five (5) teachers for A Float Through Time program centered in Dinosaur National Park. All scholarships include lodging, meals, program and tours.

Statement of Commitment:

Please sign and return this coversheet with the statement of commitment for this project.

I understand that if accepted to the 2010 Youth Summit we will be responsible for attending all Summit activities, disseminating information from the Summit to my school and community upon my return from the Summit.
